OFFICER DRENNAN FILES RESIGNATION WITH MAYOR RUSSELL

Policeman Resigns From Force and Will Engage in Business For Himself—Resignation Takes Effect March First.

Officer Martin Drennan filed his resignation as a member of the local police force with Mayor Thomas M.
Russell today. The resignation is to take effect the first of March.

Mr. Drennan was one of the best policemen on the force and was held in high esteem by everyone in the city.
Clean, straightforward and energetic and the force is losing one of the best men that has ever worn the blue here.

Officer Drennan is just recovering from a serious attack of influenza and has decided that he will enter business for himself. He has formed a partnership with Mr. Wicks Martin and they will take over the Navarre Cafe running a first class lunch room, and billiard and pool parlor. Mr.
Drennan's popularity will add much to the concern and it is certain he will meet with great success for besides being personally popular he bears an enviable reputation for being square and honest in all of his dealings.

Maysville loses a first class officer but gains a first-class business man.
As Mr. Drennan's resignation takes effect on the first of March his successor will not likely be elected until at the next regular meeting of City Council.

WELL KNOWN ENGINEER ELEVATED TO CAPTAINCY

For Services Noteworthy of Attention
Mr. C. F. Nimmo Is Elevated
From Lieutenant to Captain In France.

Friends here have just been advised by mail that Mr. C. F. Nimmo, who for some time lived in Maysville and who was a civil engineer on government Dam 33, has been elevated from the rank of Lieutenant to that of Captain.

It will be remembered that Mr. Nim-mo was registered under the army draft in this city and by a special order of the local board was allowed to enter the officers' training camp at Ft.
Benjamin Harrison, Ind. Being an expert engineer he graduated from the camp with a rank of Lieutenant and was assigned to a company of engineers for overseas duty.

After but a short time, his continent was sent to France and since that time the 48th Engineers, to which he belonged, has done wonderful work at the front. Because of special service he rendered and because of his especial fitness, Mr. Nimmo has been elevated to the rank of Captain.

The last information received here as to Captain Nimmo's location was that he was at Monte Carlo.

graphing all graves. Each photograph will be mounted on a cardboard folding frame on one side of which will be inscribed the record of the soldier.

AUTO LOSES WHEEL

The right rear wheel of the Merz
Brothers auto delivery truck ran off while the machine was moving East on Second street near Traxel's this morning and let the machine down into the street. Luckily the machine was moving at no rapid rate of speed and the driver brought it to a stop within a few feet doing practically no damage.

Mr. E. T. Young, of Versailles, Deputy U. S. Internal Revenue Collector, and Mr. John White, of Lexington, Internal Revenue Agent, are here to assist Deputy Collector Lindsey in making out the many income tax returns of the Maysville and Mason county citizens who have incomes large enough to be touched by the Income Tax Law. These gentlemen arrived in Maysville this morning and immediately began their work in the Deputy Revenue Collector's office in the government building. They have been busy ever since and will probably be kept busy during their entire stay in Maysville.

All income tax returns must be filed by March 15, if made on the basis of the calendar year; otherwise on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of fiscal year.

gle person with a net income of $1,000 or over; by married persons, living together, if the joint net income of husband and wife amounts to $2,000 or over; by fiduciary, if the net income of Taxes to be paid in four equal installments—the first at the time fixed by law for filing the return, the others, one each, respectively, on the 15th day of the third, sixth and ninth month after the time fixed by law for filing the return.

DUMP NEEDS ATTENTION

The city dump on Bridge street is now badly needing attention. Paper and trash is collecting on the top of the dump and winds scatter it all over that section of the city. This paper and loss trash should be carefully raked down from the dump and burned at regular intervals. This matter should have the immediate attention of the Street Cleaning Department and the Fire Department before the trash is all scattered over the city.

Missionary Secretary, Mr. George Hays, prominent Louisville layman and Hon. Ben Bruner, recently candidate for U. S. Senator from Kentucky on the Republican ticket.

BACK FROM CAMP TAYLOR

Mr. Fred Arn, who after being inducted into the army service as a limited service man because of his size, was the clerical assistant of the Mason County Draft Board, returned from Camp Taylor Saturday night having received his discharge from the army. Mr. Arn says Camp Taylor is filled with men who are anxiously awaiting their instructions to return home.

HOME FROM OVERSEAS

Mr. Howard Rudy, who has been in France with the A. E. F., has arrived home having obtained a permanent discharge from the army. Mr. Rudy is looking well and says he feels fine and has greatly enjoyed his experi-

Frankfort in time, he also, has prom-them. Fred Bassett, the joker, will be on hand.

nished by Young's Orchestra and there will be plenty to eat planned by a committee composed of Messrs. Fred Cabilish and Thomas Proctor and assisted by James A. Wallace and James Redmond.

The purpose of this evening's social tending are assured that in good measure.

RESIGNATION OF STANLEY AWAITS TALK WITH WILSON

Governor A. O. Stanley went to Washington Sunday night, where he will have an interview with President Wilson relative to the holding of a special session of Congress.

It is understood that the result of this interview will have great bearing on the governor's decision regarding the date of his resignation.

BIG WEEK OF ENTERTAINMENT

This week will be one of the biggest weeks of entertainment the city has known for some time. Besides a splendid program of moving pictures at all of the local movies, the latter part of the week will see a feast of good entertainment at the Washington Theater.
Much interest is displayed in the coming of the Captain and the Kids Wednesday evening and the big mystery show for the balance of the week.

appointed by County Judge Purnell is the State Tax Commission to complain

COMEDY BIG FACTOR IN BLACKSTONE SHOW AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Peter Bouton, Most Celebrated of Fanciful Men in Stage Magic, Member of Big Company Coming to Maysville Thursday With Superman of Mysticism.

When The Great Blackstone and company come to Maysville next Thursday they will bring the most famous comedy magician on the stage, the celebrated Peter Bouton, whose rooster transformation and his live gold fish meals are known wherever magic has been produced.

Bouton has been the chief comedy factor of the big Blackstone production for seven years. He formerly had on the road his own show, which presented the funny side of magic and mystery. The Great Blackstone made it worth his while to join his company and ever since Peter Bouton has been furnishing laughs by the hundred with the most distinguished exponent of the arts of psychic sensation and the superman of mysticism.

Blackstone, himself, is somewhat of a comedian and his line of rapidfire talk keeps his audience in good humor while he presents his feats and exposes with lightning-line speed.

In fact, The Great Blackstone is a believer in comedy as the essential of every mystery and novelty production.
Without the laughs any entertainment becomes tragedy in his mind and he has seen to it that there is not one whit of tragedy about his production.

There are, however, the gruesome moments, for the Hand of Death, a spiritualistic telepathic revelation, is one of the big cards of the program. It answers any question asked about love, domestic happiness, business, finance, crime or future destiny. It is placed on a piece of plain glass, with no wire or other connections with the stage and its answers are given in the well known seance raps of the fingers on glass. Blackstone, himself, stands in the aisle while the hand answers the queries of spectators.

The Hand of Death promises to be the feature that will attract women to the special Saturday mystery matinee.
Women as a rule constitute the largest element of the curious as well as the sincere questioners. Men play a part, all right, but are always outnumbered at a Blackstone performance.

The Blackstone Uniphone will be seen and heard in Maysville each day of the engagement, starting Thursday night. The free concert in front of the theatre will start daily at 7:45 p.
m. and an extra concert will be given Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Seats for the engagement will go on sale tomorrow morning at the store of Shafer & Watkins. Judging by the interest that has been manifested in Maysville since the Public Ledger Saturday announced the engagement there is going to be an active demand for seats for each performance.

describing the operation of the Confederate mounted forces during the ville, the Sergeant stopped off for a

PRESIDENT GIVEN GREAT WELCOME BY MANY BOSTONIANS

Great Throng Meets President Wilson
As He Again Puts Foot on American Soil—Precautions Taken.

Boston, February 24—After an absence of more than 10 weeks, during which he took part in deliberations destined to mold the world's history for generations, President Wilson again stepped on American soil today.

He came ashore here aboard the revenue cutter Ossipee, which took him and the executive party off the liner George Washington, which arrived in President roads, Boston harbor, early last night.

Escorted by six destroyers, which met her at sea, the president's ship arrived off Deer Island, at the harbor entrance, at 5 o'clock Sunday night.
As soon as the transport dropped anchor naval craft began circling about it, keeping a constant vigil throughout the night.

The day for President Wilson's welcome home dawned clear, with a strong south wind. Practically all signs of rain had disappeared.
The only persons on board the Os-sipee to welcome the president were Governor Coolidge, Mayor Peters, Maj.
Gen. Clarence Edwards and Rear Admiral Spencer S. Wood.

Every ship in the harbor, naval and merchant, was a mass of colors in honor of the president's arrival.

Joseph P. Tumulty, the president's secretary, went aboard the George Washington last night, going down the bay on a submarine chaser. Tumulty had taken with him the $6,000,000 war revenue bill for the president to sign.

The streets along which the presidential procession passed today were roped to hold back the crowds.

Extraordinary precautions were taken to guard the president. The Copley Plaza Hotel was patrolled by many Secret Service men.

Mechanics Hall, where the speech was to be made, was surrounded by officers early in the day. Men with rifles were stationed on roofs of buildings.

Persons without credentials were not even permitted to cross the streets through which the president's automobile proceeded.

Troops sent in from the forts were supplied with regulation cartridges—no blanks. Nine hundred policemen were stationed on the line of march.
Long before time for the president to land the sidewalks were thronged with spectators. Boston's hotels were unable to accommodate crowds from all parts of New England.

Gold in Skim Milk

The skim milk you fed to the stock this morning undoubtedly contained butter-fat worth 30 to 40 cents a pound at the creamery. You thought your separator skimmed clean, and so it may—if turned at exactly the speed stamped upon the crank. But no one can turn always at a uniform speed—it isn't human nature. Thousands of official tests have shown that 19 out of 20 hand separators are turned too slow and, of course, lose cream.
Your creamery would pay from $2.40 to $12 for the butterfat you lost per cow during one year.

You can get all the gold from the milk by using

THE NEW SHARPLES SUCTION-FEED

Separator. It skims clean at widely varying speeds. The milk inflow varies with the speed—always in exact proportion to the separating force. No other separator can do it.

The boy or "hired man" may turn 35 times a minute.
It does no harm—takes a little longer, that's all. When in a hurry, you may spin the crank 55 times a minute and finish the chore quickly. No other separator can be hurried.

Whatever the speed, the cream will be of the same even quality—not thin today and thick tomorrow. All other separators vary the density of the cream when the speed is varied.

The large low supply can save a lot of heavy lifting. A small boy can easily fill it. The women folks always prefer the Sharples—it's so easy to clean. The simple tubular bowl has only three pieces. There are no discs to wash.
The entire machine can be instantly taken apart and put together. It's ruggedly built for long hard service and fully guaranteed.

Come in and let us show you how to get the gold that's now being lost in your skim milk.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

FAIR DEALING

In response to the reconstruction and labor question the following sensible clipping is taken from an exchange which seems to cover the entire matter:

"We want prosperity in America, but not swollen fortunes. We want big rewards for men who do big constructive things, and jail sentences for the big fellows who steal the fruits of their work and the savings of small investors. There have been altogether too many mavericks loose on the range, sucking cows on which they have no claim. There would be no real railroad mess, no necessity for trying to pare down wages in basic industries, if there had been no banker control and no flagrant watering of the stock of these corporations. For this reason, if for no other, reductions in high dividends must precede reductions in high wages during the adjustment period.

"The wise business man is not the one who is talking about liquidating labor, but the one who is sharpening his pencil in order to figure out a way to keep wages up. The reactionary business man must get it clearly in his head that the country is not interested in speeding up business in order that the country is not interested in speeding up business in order that he may have a new motor, or a new country house and a flock of footmen, but that the whole mass of Americans may move up to a higher plane of living and self-respect. He must be satisfied with a fair but smaller share of the profits. Labor must not only be kept employed but well-paid. Courage and common sense will do it—courage to go ahead, to expand, and to bet on the country that has never failed the man who believed in it—common sense to understand that no prosperity is worth while that is based on the exploitation of others, and that no gains will be lasting that are not fairly divided."

As the Governor of North Carolina said to the Governor of South Carolina, "What's your, chocklit or sassferilla?"—Macon Telegraph.

THE PREMIER OF PREMIERS

Washington, February 24—The Republican Publicity Association, thru its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out the following statement from its Washington Headquarters:

"It is not too much to predict that history will point to Premier Clemenceau as the greatest personality that this war has developed. Called from retirement to take command of the government after other premiers had failed to measure up to the demands of the hour he immediately demonstrated in his vigorous handling of the situation that he had lost none of his early fighting qualities. The cause of the allies was at a low ebb when Clemenceau stepped into the arena and calmly announced that thereafter Marshal Foch would exercise supreme command of the allied armies. Such was the force of his character that nobody had the hardihood to dispute his decision, and the appointment of Foch as generalissimo was accepted. No other single incident of the war contributed so much to the allied success as the unified command that Clemenceau by sheer force of will made a reality.

"Premier Clemenceau's entire life has been in the turmoil of politics, constantly fighting for the principles in which he believed. Although France was forced to conclude a disastrous peace with Germany in 1871, it was not done with the acquiescence of Clemenceau. He was one of the delegates at the negotiations and fought to the last against the ceding of Alsace and Lorraine to Germany. "Men cannot be bought as slaves in Africa, nor sold as serfs in Russia, nor delivered like cattle into the hands of Bismarck." Those were his words as he raged against the oppression of the Iron Chancellor. He has lived to have the satisfaction of seeing those states returned to France, with himself the leader of his country in bringing Germany to her knees.

"But great as have been the contributions of the Tiger of France to the defeat of Germany it may be truthfully said that at no time has he assumed a more important role than he is now playing at the peace conference. While there is a difference of opinion among the large number of conferees on most of the questions they all are of little significance compared with the paramount importance of the policy to be followed in dealing with Germany. On that question the conference apparently is divided into two camps—those who believe in forcing the Huns to pay the penalty for the frightful disaster they brought upon the world, and those who think the best way to obtain a lasting peace is to be lenient with the Germans, to send them what food they need, raw materials for their industries, and so arrange matters that they will be able to take their place in competition with other nations for the world's commerce.

"The latter school of thought is personified in Mr. Wilson and his associates on the American delegation, the former policy is insisted upon by Clemenceau, backed by the French, Italian, Belgian, and English delegates. The French people know that Germany not only has a huge army with which to continue her menacing attitude, but factories turning out immense quantities of products with which to flood the markets of France and of the world, and a possible fleet of ships to carry those products overseas. France, on the other hand, remembers that her northern industries have been destroyed systematically by the Germans, machinery removed, cattle and live-stock, vineyards and orchards killed, and everything possible done to destroy her future trade competition with Germany. Unless the Germans are held back until France can recuperate her losses she will be at the commercial mercy of the Huns. The Frenchmen know that Clemenceau stands between them and financial ruin in the future. The benefits of the fight that he is now making for the industrial regeneration of his country, free from German interference, if his efforts are successful, will be enjoyed by his countrymen for years to come, and make of Premier Clemenceau the hero not only of the French people but of all who believe that exact justice should be the lot of friend and foe alike."

WOMEN EVERYWHERE

Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as the Greatest Remedy for Woman's Ills.

New Haven, Conn.—"For two years I suffered with a female weakness, pains in my back and painful periods, and I was so weak and tired that I was not able to do my work. A friend told me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it gave me great relief. My pains left me and I am now able to do my work and feel fine. You can publish my testimonial and if your Vegetable Compound does others as much good as it has me I will be very much pleased."

—Mrs. CHARLES E. MORGAN, 37 Sea Street, New Haven, Conn.

The reason Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful is because it contains the curative, strengthening properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, which act directly on the female organism.

There are women everywhere who long for children in their homes yet are denied this happiness on account of some functional disorder which in most cases would readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such women should not give up hope until they have given this wonderful medicine a trial, and for special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of 40 years' experience is at your service.

HOPE IS SEEN FOR CURE FOR INFLUENZA

Blood Taken From Persons Just Recovering From Disease Seems to Be Only Successful Serum.

Washington, February 22—Just one recognized advance has been made in the treatment of influenza as a result of all the experience and experiments of medical men with the disease in this country during the recent epidemic, according to government medical authorities.

The cause of the disease and its cure, however, remains as much a mystery as it was 300 years ago.

This advance, however, is not of a nature to forestall in any degree future epidemics. Instead, it is available only in time of epidemic and in places where large numbers of convalescent patients are available.

It consists in the pooling of the blood drawn from a large number of persons who recently have suffered from influenza and in using injections of this blood serum into the veins of patients in the acute stages of the disease.

To be efficacious, however, it seems the blood mixture must be drawn not from a few persons who recently have had the disease but preferably from not less and 50 to 100, if it is to react with a curative effect.

This serum, however, has given positive results in some 100 cases in which it has been tested out and has raised the hopes of medical workers that some actual cure or preventative may be discovered. If research work can be concentrated on this study.

One of the queer freaks of the epidemic is that where seemingly the most strenuous efforts were made to curb its spread, it claimed the most victims.

THE DOLLAR MARK

Kaiser Bill started out in the world war to put his mark upon the world at large; to corral it, nation by nation, and brand it for his own.

But the dollar of our daddies beat him to it.

Before he had crossed the line of the Belgian defenses the American dollar was busy in England and France. Before he had scuttled into Holland and his armed horde had retreated across the Rhine, some nine billion of them had seen service behind the allied ranks.

And something like $20,000,000,000 had been working overtime for Uncle Sam both at home and abroad.

Backed up by a fighting force of 2,000,000,000 Yanks and a reserve force of as many more in the training stations or headed in that direction.

Today the mark of the American dollar is upon almost half the world.

And there is nothing sordid about it either.

Mostly it stands for a greater realization of liberty, a loftier purpose for humanity, a higher ideal for civilization.

Strangely the dollar and democracy have gone hand in hand.

While without it democracy would now have been but a memory. Autocracy would have been in the saddle, reckless as a broncho buster. Just as little considerate of whomever might get into its way.

Time was when the American dollar was held up to the scorn of the world. It isn't the fashion any more. It has won its spurs; made its mark. But there is yet considerable for it to do. Uncle Sam's feet aren't entirely out of the mire of the world war. The world at large still flounders. The American dollar must help clear both.

The Methodist Centenary Trombone Choir of 100 instruments is here shown leaving the stage in recessional. At the head is Frank M. Sutphen, director. This is the first time 100 trombones ever have been organized into a single musical unit. Above, at the left, is S. Earl Taylor, director general of the celebration, of New York. At the right is W. B. Beauchamp of Nashville, Tenn., associate director general of the celebration, representing the Methodist Church South.

ONE hundred trombones, mobilized for the Methodist Centenary Celebration in Columbus, Ohio, June 20 to July 7, will pour forth the harmony of "Hallelujah Chorus" and "Holy City" in the huge Coliseum where the musical features of the celebration will be held.

One hundred trombones—some so large and some so small that they must be made to order—will blend their music in the largest, and, so far as is known, the only choir of its kind in the world.

Being absolutely new and unique, the trombone choir has presented any number of difficulties to its organizers, the Centenary Celebration committee. In the first place, they must find 100 trombone players within reasonable distance of Columbus. They solved this problem by mobilizing all the professional players, and completing the organization with talented amateurs. Anthony Ruppersburg was made business manager of the choir.

and Frank M. Sutphen, a well known trombonist of Columbus, was secured as director of the 100 musicians, who are contributing their time and talent to making a success of the Centenary Trombone Choir.

A greater problem lay in what to play, for no music had ever been written for a trombone choir of 100 players. It had to be specially prepared. Nationally known composers are now at work arranging such sacred and semi-sacred selections as the "Soldiers' Chorus" from Faust, "Holy City," "Hallelujah Chorus" and "Onward Christian Soldiers" for the huge choir.

The Centenary Choir is composed of 12 soprano trombones, 18 altos, 40 tenors, 18 baritone and 12 bass trombones. These 100 instruments are arranged to form six separate choirs, each a musical unit in itself. At the extreme right of each bank, or choir, come two soprano trombones no larger than cornets. These instruments are made to order. Next come three altos, then two first tenors, and two second tenors. In the center of each row are the third and fourth tenors. Next come the first, second and third baritone, each with a part of its own, then the big B flat bass trombone, and on the end of each choir, the F bass, a majestic affair, which also had to be made to order for the Centenary Choir.

"Most people have the mistaken idea that the trombone is a blaring, blasting instrument, used solely for the purpose of making noise," says Mr. Sutphen, the director. "On the contrary, it is one of the truest of musical instruments. Having neither valves nor frets, it can be tuned perfectly as it is played, and its tones can be softened to the mellow notes of the violin."

"So adaptable is the trombone, so wonderful is its power of expression, that it can take the place of flute, cello, cornet or violin, in an orchestra. And the same variety of tones may be perfected in a correctly balanced choir of trombones as the largest organ can produce."

Children tell everything they know, but there are old folks who have never outgrown the habit.

The silent man may be a mine of wisdom, but a talkative fool sometimes explodes the mines.

And the coot who is always "showing off" usually has the least to display.

ON THE FARM IN KENTUCKY

Webster Had A Vision

Noah Webster evidently saw far into the future of agriculture because in 1790 he wrote the following very wonderful and modern theory of soil fertility:

"While therefore I allow, in its full extent, the value of stable manure, marl, plaster of Paris, lime, ashes, sea-weed, sea-shells and salt, in enriching land, I believe none of them are absolutely necessary, but that nature has provided an inexhaustible store of manure, which is equally accessible to rich and poor, and which may be collected and applied to land with very little labor and expense. This store is the atmosphere, and the process by which the fertilizing substance may be obtained in vegetation."

Standbys Are Safe

Seed catalogs are interesting reading now that the sun is swinging back toward the north. They, of course, list all the old standbys; but they also have a number of attractive novelties with exquisite illustrations in vivid colors. The farmer and his wife should by all means try some of the novelties just for the excitement of the game. However, the old, tried-and-true, standard varieties should be bought in quantity to furnish the backbone of the garden operations in 1919. Circular No. 67 might offer some timely reading matter on gardening just now when the garden fever is developing. A line to the College of Agriculture will bring it in the near future as it is now on the press.

Wasn't Too Old to Learn

The scientific feeding of pigs is winning its way in the Trace Creek School district. Recently an old farmer of seventy-one, got up at a meeting at the school house and said, "I'm 71 years old and have fed hogs all of my life; but I learned more last year watchin' Bessie Downing feed her pig than I've learned the seventy years I've lived. I thought that stuff about a balanced ration and all sorts of experiment business, was all bosh; but I've seen that I'm all wrong. I invite any of you over to see my two pigs that I'm feedin' accordin' to Bessie's instructions. I've got two real pigs and they ain't eatin' their heads off either."

Oriental Eat Bait

Over in the Philippine Islands the refreshment and lunch stands sell bait as a great delicacy. Of course, the American reader never heard of a bait which looks like a hard boiled duck egg. However, these eggs have been boiled after the eggs have been incubated or 19 days. These cooked, unhatched, young ducks have a very agreeable flavor and are eagerly brought by the Filipinos.

Iron Horse Was Tried

Down at Smithland in Livingston county, Ky., the farmers had a tractor school and demonstration. Those farmers who had tractors and those who were thinking of buying iron horses were on hand. They listened to talks and watched demonstrations; then the expert took the machine to pieces and the farmers put it together again.

Hens Should Do Duty

Eggs are still a good price so every hen should do her duty. The proper food will do everything in helping her to law the eggs she should. "Feeding for Winter Eggs," Circular No. 66, gives balanced rations. The mere asking the College of Agriculture at Lexington will bring it at once.

Cow King Imprisoned

James Dorsey, "Millionaire cow king" of Illinois, is at last behind the bars of a Federal prison for eight years. For more than ten years this man has been selling tubercular cows to innocent buyers in all portions of the country.

BIG COMEDY BOOKED FOR NEXT WEDNESDAY

"The Captain and the Kids" Is Interesting Comedy Coming to Washington Next Week.

If you have been pleased, amused and enjoyed through the antics adventures, pranks and capers of those ubiquitous and irresponsible youngsters, the "Kids," from the artistic brush of R. Wicks, the cartoonist, you are sure to find additional pleasure in following their latest exploits upon the stage. The pair will be on hand in a new musical comedy entitled "The Captain and the Kids" which is to hold the boards at the Washington Theatre Wednesday, February 26.

Manager Gus Hill, who was the first to introduce "Mutt and Jeff," "Bringing Up Father," "The Yellow Kid" and other famous newspaper comics before the footlights, is also sponsor for this latest triumph. With that acumen and business foresight which spells success he has engaged a highly capable company including lots of pretty young women, who sing and dance acceptably. New gowns, costumes, novelties, surprises and other inimitable features will be in evidence. On the whole an entertaining show, easily in the van of all others.

It is the things that are made to look at that cost the most.

JURY IN VALENTINE CASE HANGS
The trial of Mr. Thomas R. Valentine, Sixth ward grocer, charged with contributing to delinquency of minors, resulted in a hung jury Saturday and the case will have to be tried again. This case is becoming quite as long and drawn out as the famous "Grey Horse Case" and has attracted much attention, there being large crowds in the court room every time the case has been called for trial.

STRONG AND LOGICAL IS NEW PASTOR'S SERMON

New Rector of the Church of the Nativity Delivers Powerful Sermon Sunday Morning.

We attended service at the Episcopal Church yesterday a. m. to hear the new minister, Rev. Mr. Stephenson. We were delighted with his conduct and predict successful reign during his pastorate. After the beautiful service, including the Solemn Litany the Reverend gentleman took his text from 1st Cor. 32nd v. 11, after the manner of men, I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage me." In the first place Mr. Stephenson spoke without notes—extemporaneously. His is a mellow far-reaching voice, with no harshness, his pronunciation is clear and distinct, his manner easy and graceful so that one naturally expects something unusual so settles back in his pew prepared to enjoy a feast of sensible oratory; couched in choice English backed by scholarly research and a mentality highly keyed to erudition and all these things are enjoyed. In unfolding his text his logic exhibited itself quite uniquely. His interpretation of the words quoted being that the many struggles of life, heartaches, sorrows, losses as well as the actual sins of commission against which the world inveighs were likened unto wild beasts with which we fight and that the only means of coming out victorious are through the powers of God, the Resurrection of Christ. That if in fighting we gain no advantage; if we do not understand that proper breathing (faith in the Holy Spirit) gives us lung power and so sustains us in the struggle until our adversary is worn out; if we do not understand the science of giving the blow (Righteousness of God) that will put to sleep these enemies then we have gained no advantage and we are eating and drinking and making merry as did those old sinners to whom St. Paul was speaking so that to recognize what stuff we are made and the spirit which pushes us on can bring that advantage which puts to rout any and all wild beasts which infest our path and which every life meets in its journey from the cradle to the grave.

FLOOR TAX APPLIES TO TOBACCO AS WELL AS LIQUOR

New Revenue Bill Which President is Supposed to Sign Today Will Greatly Increase Taxation on Tobacco as Well as Liquor.

Much interest is being shown here in the new revenue tax bill which President Wilson is supposed to sign today in Boston as the first official act after his landing in this country from his trip to Europe.

It is pointed out that there are no exemptions for liquors and tobacco in the new revenue bill in the "floor tax" provisions, but that all taxable goods are subject to the "floor tax." The "floor tax" is designed to make up the difference between the tax which already has been paid and that which is required to be paid under the new revenue measure.

As an illustration it is cited that the former tax on distilled spirits for beverage purposes was $3.20 a gallon. The new measure increases it to $6.40 a gallon. Assuming the old tax has been paid, there will be a further tax of $3.20, all inventoried goods thus paying the rate in the new measure. In the case of distilled liquors the additional tax, known as the "floor tax," is exactly the same amount as the revenue tax in the old law. The revenue tax has been doubled and there are no exemptions. The "floor tax" applies to tobacco and its products, cigars, cigarettes, etc.

The signing of this bill means that there will be immediately a great increase in the price of all liquors and all tobacco products. Prices are expected to immediately jump as soon as it is wred over the nation that the president's signature has been affixed to the bill and it has become a law.

TOBACCO MARKET SAID TO BE SOMEWHAT OFF

Reports from the local tobacco warehouses this afternoon are to the effect that the market is somewhat off on some grades today. The good tobacco is still bringing good prices but the lower grades are down in price. The most of the warehouses have good big breaks and the buyers will not be able to get entirely over the circle in today's sales.
